

Did you miss a Confirmation class?

We missed you and truthfully, you missed more than can be made up with some simple questions. But in preparing for this important sacrament, there are some things that we want to make sure you take time to think about.

Your mentor will let you know the exact sections in the Decision Point book that your classmates covered. Please read those sections as carefully and thoughtfully as you can and complete the "Discussion Questions" at the end of each section. Do not have complete any page labeled "Journal Questions."

The books are yours to write in but please transfer your answers to sheets of paper so that you can hand them in directly to your mentor at the next class. They will appreciate lined paper, ink and complete sentences. After they review your thoughts, they may have follow up questions to ask so be sure you are prepared to answer them.

Example: Haley missed her Confirmation class on Monday night because she had the flu. Her mentor used the contact information from the index card that she filled out at the Night of Invitation to let Haley know that the class talked a lot about the Bible in Section 5. In fact, the class reviewed and discussed 5.1 (p. 113), 5.2 (p. 118) and 5.4 (p. 130). Haley will review those sections carefully and complete the discussion questions for each of those sections---pp. 115, 121 and 133). She will hand those answers in to her mentor at the next class.
